Hello to all my wonderful brides!!

I hope you are all enjoying your summer and hanging in there amidst all the up's and down's of COVID. This is a stressful and emotional time, but know that if we continue to work together and stay in touch - we will get through this all! Know that all of your wedding vendors are here for you!

Please know that I have gone back and forth so many times in trying to decide how to best move forward. Know that I fully understand that no one planned on a pandemic happening this year. Know that the decision I've made has been thought over so many times, looked at from every angle, but is one that I need to move forward with. I hope that you understand that it was well thought out to be fair to you, my client as well as allowing me to continue to operate my business.

Moving Forward:

*Any wedding directly affected by COVID-19, meaning weddings affected by current restrictions where legally the wedding cannot take place at all, (looking mostly at weddings from March - June of 2020) a one time reschedule may occur and your retainer will be transferred to your new date at no additional fee. I will do everything I can do to accommodate new dates!

*Any wedding where the couple is able to legally have their wedding (and I am legally able to provide services) and are choosing to reschedule due to other reasons (not wanting to reduce their guest list, etc.), may do so by paying $200 to reschedule to a new date.

*All of the above are applied towards first reschedules only. If a second reschedule should occur for any reason a new contract and full retainer will be needed to secure a new date in 2021/2022. Full original contract payment policies will also be adhered to. .

*Any wedding rescheduling to 2021 understands that a rate change may occur and will be applied towards their wedding total (updated or additional services, change of location, etc).

*Should a bride move her wedding date and location without first connecting with me to check on availability and I am unable to accommodate the new date, that will be considered a cancellation and my cancellation policy will apply.

*If your venue cancels on you, first of all - I am so sorry to hear it. I am happy to work on a reschedule with you! Please be aware that venue cancellation is not a force majeure event as it applies to your contract with me. I'm more than happy to reschedule and provide services with a re-booking fee of $200.

Just a gentle reminder that retainers are non refundable. If you decide to go in a different direction or do makeup on your own, I am more than happy to work on a cancellation contract with you, but know that my cancellation policy will apply and retainers are non refundable.

If you are moving your date and I am not available for your new wedding date, I would love to work with you on finding alternative ways to utilize what you've paid (makeup for events, photo sessions, etc). The funds would need to be used within 6 months from your wedding date. Please know I want to still do my best to accommodate and be helpful!

Stay in touch with your vendors and have a back up plan or two in place! Continue to talk to your us if you are concerned about the potential need to postpone and get a back up date in place. The sooner we can connect on it, the more likely more of your vendors will be able to accommodate a new date (think Thursdays, Fridays and Sundays!)

I hope you all understand the reasonings behind this, because trust me when I say I've spent hours and sleepless nights working on trying to figure out what is best. Please reach out if you have any questions or would like to connect further.

Wishing you well - stay healthy!
